Sicas Hilligoss.

The ancestors of this gentleman were of German extraction on "Both sides of the house." His grandfather, George Hilligoss emigrated from Germany before the Revolutionary war, and settled in Pennsylvania, where he met and married a Miss Hester. On the breaking out of the war of independence he went out in defence of freedom and the Country of his adoption. He held the rank of Drum-Major, and fought through-out that struggle against oppression, serving under the heroic Washington. After Victory perched upon the banner of the patriot-arms, and the blessings of peace brought back the soldiers to his loved ones, he moved to with his family to Fleming County Ky. where he died in 1815 his wife having died some years before.

Sicas Hilligoss was born Fleming County, Ky. December 29 1800 and was the son of Jacob Hilligoss the eldest child of George Hilligoss Born in Pennsylvania in 1778 and Barbary (Gilbert) Hilligoss Born in Pennsylvania in 1761 who were married in Pennsylvania about 1789. The subject of this sketch was the sixth in a family of eleven children six boys and five girls only, two of whom are now living.

 He remained with his parents until he was 23 years old, doing his duty toward them, and trying to fulfill faithfully the Scriptural injunctions, In 1822, his father came to look at this country, and was so well pleased with it that he entered land in Section 11 of Rushville Township. with him came his son-in-law, Isaac Carr, who entered land about two miles farther south and west, on which he settled. His Father returned to Kentucky, and in 1823 Silas came and began working for his brother-in-law, with whom he remained about two years when he was married and settled on the land his father entered, which has ever since been his home. He was married April 7.
 1825, to Elizabeth Smiley, who was born in Virginia May 2.
 1802. her father died in Virginia when she was an infant. when she was taken by her mother to Kentucky where she lived until 1824, when she moved to this County with some friends, with whom she had been living. This union has been blessed by twelve children viz: Levi Born March 24, 1826. Margaret April 25 1827.
 Mary Ann, July 31, 1828. Ambrose, February 23, 1830. Sarah Jan.
 January 26, 1832 (died November 21, 1852) Gilbert, December 20, 1833. Lamentine June 30, 1835. Alfred July 12, 1837.

Susan, December 16, 1839. Amos, December 3 1844 died November 4. 1865) and two died in infancy. Mr Hillis began in life poor, building his rude log cabin in the green woods, possessing little of this world's goods, but he had two stout willing hands, and a strong, persevering courage, - which was bound ultimately to carry him over ever obstacle so common in a new country. his wife is one of those noble women who is always ready - to assist her husband by every means in her power, and was ever a loving and willing help-mate. much of his success in life he owes to her energy and economy, virtues that she ever adhered to and practiced. They lived together man and wife fifty four years, a fact that is something for the family to be proud of. And although both now verge on fourscore years, they are still enjoying good health. Several times through life, he had narrow escapes from death, but an All-wise Providence saw fit to preserve him to outlive the allotted time of man. In youth, he was a very active man, a hard worker and was always considered one of the best farmers in Rush County. His father, Jacob, served three months in 1794 fighting the Indians on the frontier and his brother Joseph was a soldier in the war of 1812

Politically, Mr. Hilligoss has always been a "Jefferson Democrat" and has voted for every President nominee of that party since Jackson, including "Old Hickory," a fact which he is proud of telling. Neither he nor wife has ever belonged to any religious denomination, but are firm believers in the divine Word, following the golden rule, "As you would that men should do to you, do unto them in like manner," they believe that all who act charitably, honestly and justly toward their neighbors will be rewarded. Although commencing in life at "the foot of the ladder" and without the advantages of even the rudiments of an education, he has by an energetic and enterprising spirit accumulated a large estate, owning at one time 480 acres of land besides money and other valuable property, all of which he has divided among his children with the exception of the old home-stead of 172 ac. on which he and his wife reside with their son Ambrose. Mr. Hilligoss stands to-day as a living type of those men who have built up the Great State of Indiana; and children yet unborn, while perusing these pages, will bear his name, and read with reverence the history of his trials, hardships and success in life. Written by

Miss Lillie A. Hilligoss

Monday Dec 9, - 1901,

David Hedges one of Rush Co most respectable citizens came to town on one sat morning July 14. on an errand and started on his way home. he was riding a wild horse and had some hoops on his shoulders and arms and it is supposed his horse took fright and became unmanageable threw him and caught his foot in the stirrup and a kick upon his forehead at once killed him. he was found a few minutes later dead on the side of the Moscow Road about one mile from town.

His death spread rapidly and produced a sad and sensation throughout this entire community for he was known by nearly all in the country and beloved and respected. this fact was made on the day of his funeral which took place on last Sabbath the 15. the procession which accompanied his remains from his late residence to the Henrys Cemetery was over one mile in length and was of the best citizens of Rush Co and Nashville and of his neighbors for miles around. His family consists of a widow and three children, and grand children, which are returned by the snow and their hearts are full with grief and without warning, the bolt fell and their affliction seems to great for human nature to endure

David Hilligose was born in Manning Co. Ky June 29, 1812.
 Came to Rush Co Ky - in 1830. died July 14, 1877 and was in the 65 year of his age. He was a member of no church but was with a high order of Natural Religion. and his Creed was comprehended in four words. Free toleration which meant a right to think and act for himself according to others the same right without question to which he superadded the golden rule, do unto others as ye would others should do unto you.
 The writer speaks of a forty years acquaintance with deceased and not at random in his youth he read as a school book with close scrutiny and wonderment the biographical sketches of the lives of Patriarchs of the old testament and from knowledge thus obtained the above deductive comparison has been drawn. ("written by Finely Rizer Hiles.")
